

Helping People through Separation and Divorce

The Collaborative Law Process

Seminar Overview

Charmaine Panko, Collaborative Lawyer and Mediator from Miller Thomson LLP, and Wendy Johnston, CFP, CDFA from Next Step Financial Solutions Inc. will be presenting on dispute resolution processes that can be used to prevent and reduce the impact of separation and divorce on all parties involved.

Who Should Attend

This seminar is designed for those who are interested in:

- a) Assisting parties in conflict to develop a framework for healthy communication in the hope that the marriage may be reconciled
- b) Providing an alternative to going to court in the event that reconciliation is not possible
- c) Reducing the impact of separation and divorce on all family members, and in particular the children
- d) Being educated on options available, legally and financially, ensuring equitable solutions are reached that respect the family's value and belief systems with less stress and at a lower cost.

Client Feedback

- "This seminar was personal, authentic, honest and value driven."
- "Thank you! This was excellent information."
