

Arsham Gill

Associate

Calgary

OFFICE

403.206.6348

agill@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

INDUSTRIES

Health | Transactions & Leasing | Construction and Infrastructure

EXPERTISE

Insurance Defence | Commercial Litigation

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

Alberta, 2022

EDUCATION

- JD, University of Calgary, 2021
- Bachelor of Arts (Major – Political Science), University of British Columbia, 2016

Arsham Gill, a member of Miller Thomson's litigation practice group, focuses on commercial and civil litigation, offering practical and efficient dispute resolution services to clients. Arsham has developed valuable skills in drafting pleadings, legal opinions, court applications, and written submissions for a variety of forums.

Arsham has co-authored insightful legal publications. As a volunteer with Student Legal Assistance during his time at the University of Calgary, Arsham has acted as agent and made court appearances on behalf of low income clients for matters of civil disputes, custody agreements, and low level criminal cases.

Arsham is a member of the Canadian Bar Association and the Calgary Bar Association, reflecting his commitment to legal professionalism and excellence within the community.

Industry involvement

Thought leadership

- Co-Author, “Preparing for the Metaverse: The Next Big Thing”, January 14, 2022
- Co-Author, “Graham Construction and Engineering Inc V Alberta (Infrastructure): Is Strict Compliance Necessary for a Claim Under the Alberta Public Works Act?”, May 11, 2022

Community roles

- Student Legal Assistance Volunteer Caseworker and Trial Division Member, 2018 – 2020
 - Acted as agent and made court appearances on behalf of low income clients for matters of Civil Disputes, Custody Agreements, and low level Criminal cases.
- UBC Learning Exchange volunteer classroom instructor, 2015 – 2016
 - Facilitated daily drop-ins and coordinated educational activities for low income members of the Downtown Eastside community in Vancouver.
- Immigration Services Society of British Columbia research team volunteer, 2016
 - Assisted new Canadian immigrants to obtain employment and residence and worked with a team of students to analyze immigration trends and government practices in Canada to pro-actively enhance mentoring techniques.

Memberships & affiliations

- Canadian Bar Association
- Calgary Bar Association