

Ayda Abedi

Partner

Montréal

OFFICE

514.871.5372

aabedi@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

EXPERTISE

Class Actions | Construction Litigation | Estates and Trusts Litigation

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

Quebec, 2013

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Laws, University of Montréal

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

English, French, Persian

Ayda is your go-to person for all things civil and commercial litigation. She's got your back when it comes to contract disputes, shareholders' disputes and civil liability cases. Not only does she navigate Quebec's legal maze with finesse, but she's also a pro at developing personalised strategies for each unique situation.

When it comes to education, Ayda has the credentials to back up her expertise. She's a proud graduate of the University of Montréal, where she earned her Bachelor of Laws.

Ayda is not only a legal ace, she's also deeply involved in the community. She's a valued member of the Persian Law Association and the Iranian Canadian Business Council in Quebec. She's also an active participant in the Young Bar of Montréal.

Industry involvement

Notable matters

- Represented a major international transportation company in a non-compete and non-solicit dispute
- Represented a financial institution in the CCAA restructuring of a corporation with a debt in excess of $25M
- Acted before the Supreme Court of Canada in the matter of Montréal (Ville) v. Lonardi
- Representation of a minority shareholder in an oppression remedy and derivative action
- Provided legal and strategic advice to a franchisee regarding the management of its business affairs

Memberships & affiliations

- Member of the Persian Law Association of Quebec
- Member of the Iranian Canadian Business Council, Quebec Chapter
- Young Bar of Montreal