Biography

Carol Karlonas is a talented Real Estate and Estates Paralegal in the Regina office of Miller Thomson LLP, with over three decades of experience working in various capacities since 1987, when she joined the firm's predecessor Balfour Moss. Since 1998, Carol has assisted lawyers and clients, drafting essential documents and providing skillful assistance on a range of legal issues, including residential and commercial real estate transactions, farmland acquisitions and wills and estates. Professional, experienced, and always ready to lend a helping hand, Carol is a trusted name in the legal field. With a focus on delivering top-notch service, she excels in drafting security documentation in connection with commercial lending transactions, as well as drafting estate-planning documentation and applications with respect to obtaining letters probate and letters of administration, and resealing of foreign grants from jurisdictions outside Saskatchewan. With a wealth of experience assisting clients with real estate transactions and estate matters, you are in capable hands with Carol.
