

Genevieve Cantin

Associate

London

OFFICE

519.931.3554

gcantin@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

EXPERTISE

Class Actions | Labour & Employment | Commercial Litigation

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

Ontario, 2015

EDUCATION

- LL.B., City, University of London, 2013
- BSoc.Sc. (Honours), University of Ottawa, 2010

Genevieve Cantin is an associate in the Labour and Employment Group. She advises public and private sector employers on a variety of issues, including drafting employment agreements and workplace policies, discipline and terminations, employment standards, enforcement of restrictive covenants, employment issues arising in corporate transactions and human rights issues. Genevieve also has extensive experience handling employment-related class actions.

Genevieve joined Miller Thomson LLP in 2022 after practicing at a leading labour and employment boutique in Toronto. She has been licensed to practice law in Ontario since 2015.

In her litigation practice, Genevieve represents clients in trials, appeals and tribunal/board hearings. She has appeared in all levels of court in Ontario, the Court of King's Bench of Manitoba, the Supreme Court of Newfoundland and Labrador, the Federal Court and the Federal Court of Appeal.

Industry involvement

Thought leadership

- Burnout and Resiliency: Building Stronger Workplaces, Ontario Municipal Human Resources Association Newsletter, December 2024

Community roles

- Pro Bono Ontario – Legal Advice Hotline
- NCA Network – Mentor

Memberships & affiliations

- Law Society of Ontario
- Canadian Bar Association
- Ontario Bar Association
- The Middlesex Law Association
- The Advocates' Society