Guillaume, a lawyer at Miller Thomson, specializes in commercial and civil litigation. He has expertise in insurance, contractual disputes, civil and professional liability, and shareholder disputes. With his extensive experience, he effectively represents clients in court, both at trial and on appeal, while embodying core values such as integrity, honesty, and loyalty. He is deeply committed to providing fair and rigorous representation for his clients. Guillaume holds an LL. B. from the Université de Sherbrooke, earned in 2019, which reflects his solid education. As a former student athlete, he played football for over ten years while pursuing his studies, which helped him develop strong organizational skills and a well-rounded character.
