Biographie

FORMATION

- J.D., University of Toronto, Faculty of Law, 2018

Jesse has advocated on behalf of a diverse portfolio of commercial real estate clients with respect to their real property assessment and taxation matters, appearing before the Ontario Assessment Review Board, the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, and the Divisional Court of Ontario. He is dedicated to providing service excellence by approaching all matters analytically and with an open-mind, to identify issues, opportunities, and solutions. His top priority is protecting client interests through oral and written advocacy and ensuring the most beneficial outcome to every matter.

Jesse is an active member of the Canadian Property Tax Association, where he has co-authored a number of articles and presented on legal panels.
