

Meaghan Martin

Paraprofessional

Toronto

OFFICE

416.597.4387

mmartin@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

EXPERTISE

Real Estate

Biography

Meaghan Martin, a seasoned Corporate Law Clerk at Miller Thomson's Toronto office, brings over 8 years of expertise in corporate and residential real estate law. Specializing in routine incorporations, amendments, and dissolutions, Meaghan's skill set extends to business name registrations, due diligence searches, and organizing corporate records for seamless transactions.

Clients benefit from Meaghan's comprehensive knowledge of extra provincial registrations, limited partnerships, and related corporate maintenance. Her dedication to maintaining accurate record books and providing expert guidance in corporate transactions makes her a trusted ally in the legal realm. With a focus on detail-oriented work and a passion for delivering exceptional results, Meaghan stands out as a valuable asset for any client seeking reliable legal support.

With a wealth of experience in assisting on residential real estate matters and financing transactions, Meaghan is a reliable and diligent professional who ensures client needs are met with precision and care. Her meticulous approach to interpreting searches and reviewing corporate records showcases her commitment to delivering top-notch service in every transaction she handles.