Mryam is growing her dispute resolution practice, particularly in insolvency, restructuring, and general commercial litigation. With a solid foundation in commercial litigation, she collaborates with a range of stakeholders, including debtors, creditors, investors, trustees, and lenders on all aspects of commercial reorganizations. Her goal is to provide effective, tailored solutions for each client's unique needs. Before joining Miller Thomson, Mryam honed her skills at a mid-sized law firm, focusing on a broad spectrum of general commercial litigation cases.
