Ryan Kitzul is a Partner at Miller Thomson in Regina, with a focus on civil litigation. With admission to the Saskatchewan and British Columbia Bars, Ryan has considerable experience acting as counsel for health service providers under several provincial statutes and defending tort claims in personal injury and medical malpractice proceedings. Ryan excels in representing clients in various matters, showcasing his prowess in multiple legal areas, including corporate and commercial litigation.

Ryan presented on the Evolution of Summary Judgment Applications at the 2025 CBA MidWinter Meeting, showcasing his broad experience and contribution to the legal community. Ryan is also a frequent presenter to healthcare professionals on medical negligence law and the importance of proper medical record keeping.

Ryan's commitment to continuous legal growth shines through memberships in prestigious organizations like the Canadian Bar Association and the Saskatchewan Trial Lawyers Association. His efforts have been recognized by his peers in The Best Lawyers in Canada for Corporate and Commercial Litigation, Medical Negligence, and Personal Injury Litigation
