

Tom Ghag

Associate

Vancouver

OFFICE

604.628.2931

tghag@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

EXPERTISE

Corporate Tax | Global Trade and Customs | Sales, Commodity and Indirect Tax | Tax Controversy and Disputes Resolution

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

British Columbia, 2020

EDUCATION

- CPA In-Depth Tax Program, Year I, 2024
- J.D., University of British Columbia, 2019

Tom focuses in corporate tax matters, assisting with reorganizations, shareholder distributions, succession planning, and cross-border transactions. His experience extends to sales tax, where he helps clients navigate obligations in various industries and Canadian jurisdictions. Additionally, Tom provides strategic advice on global trade issues, guiding clients through trade compliance audits and export controls across international borders. With a diverse client base spanning industries including apparel, energy, and manufacturing, Tom offers valuable legal insights and has contributed to reputable tax publications and articles. Tom is a contributing author to multiple tax publications. This strong industry engagement combined with his practical experience positions Tom as a knowledgeable and reliable legal advisor for clients seeking assistance with complex tax and trade matters.

Industry involvement

Community roles

- Volunteer, Pro Bono Students Canada, 2016-2017