

Thomas R. Whitby

Partner

Toronto

OFFICE

416.595.8561

twhitby@millerthomson.com

Industries & Expertise

INDUSTRIES

Major Projects | Construction and Infrastructure

EXPERTISE

Construction Litigation | Lloyd's of London

Biography

BAR ADMISSION

Ontario, 1988

EDUCATION

- LL.B., Queen's University, 1986
- B.A. High Honours, Economics, University of Regina, 1982

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

English

Tom Whitby's construction litigation practice at Miller Thomson focuses on professional negligence. With over 25 years of experience, he represents architects, engineers, and general contractors in a variety of construction claims, ranging from fee disputes to design negligence and construction deficiencies. Tom also advises on insurance coverage and policy interpretations, consulting with insurers on construction-related matters.

Tom is a sought-after lecturer, educating professionals on topics such as loss prevention and construction law at various seminars and insurance syndicates at Lloyd's of London. Tom's commitment to knowledge sharing showcases his passion for the legal profession and staying at the forefront of industry developments.

Tom is a member of the Canadian Bar Association and has consistently been named among The Best Lawyers in Canada for Construction Law and Insurance Law. His knowledge and experience in these areas highlight his dedication and proficiency in the legal field, ensuring top-notch representation for his clients.

Industry involvement

Recognition

- The Best Lawyers in Canada – Construction Law, 2015 – 2025; Insurance Law, 2013 – 2025

Thought leadership

- Tom lectures regularly at loss prevention seminars for the professional regulatory bodies.
- For the last 10 years, he has lectured annually to insurance syndicates at Lloyd's of London on topics related to construction law in Canada, insurance policy interpretations and professional indemnity and civil procedure.

Memberships & affiliations

- Canadian Bar Association