FORMATION

- J.D., University of Detroit Mercy School of Law, 2010
- B.A. (Honours), University of Waterloo, 2007
- Clerkship for the Honourable David J. Allen, 3rd Circuit Court of Wayne County

Tina is an experienced commercial litigator whose practice covers a wide range of complex commercial litigation matters. Tina has appeared before all levels in court in Ontario including the Court of Appeal for Ontario. She focuses on commercial real estate litigation, construction law, securities law, and regulatory compliance, handling cases involving commercial lease disputes, property rights, complex shareholder disputes, fraud, contract breaches, and regulatory challenges. Her approach to solving issues is pragmatic with an in depth understanding of market dynamics, ensuring clients receive comprehensive representation tailored to their unique needs. Tina has built a reputation for effectively navigating the intricacies of commercial law and advocating for clients in high-stakes litigation. Whether negotiating settlements or representing clients in court including throughout trial, Tina leverages her extensive experience to provide strategic, results-oriented legal solutions to her clients.

With an impressive educational background and clerkship experience, Tina is equipped with the knowledge and practical insights needed to navigate complex legal matters effectively and pragmatically.

Called to the Bar in both Ontario and New York, Tina is actively involved in legal associations on both sides of the border and has achieved numerous prestigious awards during her legal studies, showcasing her dedication to the legal field and her exceptional skills in advocacy and alternative dispute resolution.
