

Trevor McGowan

Calgary

BUREAUX

403.206.6356

tmcgowan@millerthomson.com

Biographie

FORMATION

- Juris Doctor, University of Calgary, expected completion 2024
- Bachelor of Education, University of Saskatchewan, 2019

Trevor is currently completing his Juris Doctor degree at the University of Calgary Faculty of Law. He is a member of several Faculty clubs, including the Business Law Association, Environmental Law Society, Indigenous Law Club, Intellectual Property Club, and Technology Law Club.

Prior to entering law school, Trevor completed a Bachelor of Education degree at the University of Saskatchewan. He then worked as a substitute teacher in Saskatoon. Trevor is Métis and is dedicated to supporting his community. Trevor gained valuable experience working at a Saskatchewan-based educational, employment and cultural institute where he was directly involved with facilitating access to funding, education, and employment opportunities for Métis people.

In his spare time, Trevor enjoys playing basketball whenever possible, going on adventures outdoors, producing electronic music at home, and learning about the latest trends in movies, music, and technology.