Wendy P.S. Belisle practices in commercial law, with a strong focus on commercial leasing and the acquisition and sale of real estate in Quebec and across Canada. Her approach to these transactions centres on a deep understanding of her clients' key objectives, allowing her to create personalized, goal-oriented strategies based on priorities, aspirations, and ideal outcomes. Wendy's commitment to achieving optimal results translates into a focused, client-centred engagement that never loses sight of the broader context.

Wendy's membership in both the Quebec and Ontario bars, coupled with her varied experience across the private, public, and not-for-profit sectors, allows her to bring a unique blend of legal and business expertise to her clients.

Wendy holds LL.B. and J.D. degrees, along with a Bachelor of Arts in Middle Eastern Studies and Anthropology. A skilled negotiator, she has successfully negotiated numerous leases for international, Canadian, and Quebec-based companies, demonstrating her ability to secure favourable outcomes in complex transactions.
